

Jewel W Daniels

Personal Biography

Jewel Daniels is a Brooklyn-born exciting and engaging speaker and entrepreneur who carried her New York drive to the boardrooms of the South. Her business acumen has placed her as the president of Daniels Communications Group, a progressive corporate training and strategic marketing firm based in Savannah, GA.

Jewel has taken her impactful messages to the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation's Annual Conference, the C-E-O Conference, Women's Leadership Exchange, St. Croix Women's Business Center Women's Conference, Blacks in Government, Martin Luther King Jr. Community Breakfast, Bronner Brothers Annual Conference, African American Women on Tour and the GWEN Conference. She has been featured in various publications to include Skirt magazine, Onyx Woman, The Savannah Morning News, The Savannah Herald, and London's The Post business newspaper.

She is a noted author, penning the books; It Takes Tenacity, 15 Power moves to Survive the Wilderness and Weather the Economic Storm and The Enterprising Entrepreneur. Her writing addresses business challenges and provides motivational messages for entrepreneurs and career professionals. An International Orator, Jewel was recently featured in Skirt Magazine.

People are immediately drawn to Jewel engaging personality, connectivity with an audience and love of sharing her creative means for dealing with life's challenges. It gives her sheer joy to make people laugh, embrace success but push to achieve greatness!

Whether you are reading within the pages of her books or sharing space with her during one of her speaking engagements, you will always walk away inspired, compelled to reach for greatness and feeling that you have made a new friend.

As an accomplished business woman, she has received recognition as one of Georgia's "40 Under 40" in Business and Politics by Georgia Trend magazine and the Savannah Business Report & Journal, Entrepreneur of the Year as well as receiving recognition from former Georgia Gov. Roy Barnes and Congressman Jack Kingston. She has also been dubbed one of the "brightest thinkers on issues of urgent concern to the African American community" by the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation Conference planners and is the founder of the Tenacious Woman Conference.

Jewel currently serves on the board of Quantum, Inc. and serves in leadership positions with the American Society for Training and Development (Savannah) and the Savannah Society Human Resource Management (Savannah). She also holds memberships in the Society for Government Meeting Planners, the Savannah Small Business Chamber and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

She is a graduate of Hampton University as well as New York University's Public Relations Institute and was the first African American woman accepted to Yonsei University in Seoul, Korea where she studied International Relations and Political Science. Her career is accented by her roles as an Adjunct Instructor at Savannah Technical College, Stephen Minister and Leader and her service as a trained Bible Study instructor.