

SPEAKER SUBMISSION

Contact information:
Name	Jewel Daniels, President
Author and Motivational Speaker	Books: It Takes Tenacity , 15 Power Moves to Survive the Wilderness and Weather the Economic Storm and The Enterprising Entrepreneur
Company	Daniels Communications Group, Inc.
Street Address:	5710 Ogeechee Road, Suite 200 #256	City: Savannah	State: GA	Zip Code: 31405
Contact Number:	912.665.2888	Work Phone: 912.443.1996	E-Mail Address: jewelldaniels@bellsouth.net
Speaking Footage:	Speakers Video

Past Speaking Engagements:

- C-E-O National Conference • Congressional Black Caucus • Savannah Chamber of Commerce • Divas United, • Blacks in Government • GWEN Conference • Savannah SHRM • Bronners Brothers Annual Conference • Martin Luther King Jr. Business Community Breakfast • Women’s Leadership Exchange • St. Croix Women’s Business Center • African American Women on Tour • Savannah State University • Savannah Small Business Chamber • Immanuel Baptist Church

PRESENTATION TOPICS

TITLE:	Demonstrating Strong Leadership During a Challenging Economy
---------------	--

DESCRIPTION:

Every business experiences cycles of growth and prosperity while also having to navigate through periods of peaks and valleys. Today’s economic conditions present challenges for business owners and leaders who are faced with providing strong leaderships while dealing with team member challenges and maintaining a healthy lifeline for the business. Learn how to turn typhoons into triumphs and challenges into opportunities.

Attendees will gain insight on how to find opportunity in the eye of the storm, methods to set a navigation plan to handle changing business cycles while meeting the needs of your team and techniques to establish a course that keeps you focused on achieving demonstrable success

TITLE:	Leadership and Responsible Corporate Governance: Planning for a Changing Workforce -
---------------	---

The growing number of single-parent households presents a new challenge for corporate America with leadership being faced with making changes to programs, policies and procedures that will provide support systems for employees while continuing to meet corporate objectives, budgets and productivity.

Single-parent households have more than doubled over the last 30 years, growing from 11 percent t to 27 percent. Hispanics will become the largest minority group, Gen Yers will compose 36% of the workforce by 2014 and within the same period, women will account for 46.8 % of the labor force.

The changes will place new demands on business creating a need to adapt policies and procedures to accommodate changes in the workforce. Leadership will have to be forward thinking in anticipating the effect this paradigm shift and how they will take responsible actions to govern the health and welfare of corporations, non-profits and government agencies

WORKSHOP INFORMATION

TITLE:	Tenacious Entrepreneurship-Growing and Sustaining a Business Victim vs Volunteer, Why Some Businesses Survive
---------------	--

How do you keep the forces of an economic crisis from devouring your business, questioning your leadership ability and killing your professional relationships?
You grab hold of the tenacious spirit that led you to embark upon your entrepreneurial journey and use it to stand down adversity! Entrepreneurship requires a steadfast, unyielding will; while tenacity demands the work of a sagacious pioneer. Jewel tackles the dexterity and an explosive determination required to revive those who have succumb to the pressures of growing and sustaining a business. She addresses the tough question of whether business owners are victims or volunteers of their circumstances and offers solutions for navigating through the storm.
Understand power moves that will help avoid hitting the panic button that can lead to hurried decisions with long-term destructive effects. Gain insight on solutions that go beyond eliminating personnel and slashing budgets, to instead perform artful surgery, work strategic alliances, maximize client relationships to lead work teams out of the business wilderness.

TITLE:	Powerbrokers and Game-changes: Preparing Women for the Economic Paradigm Shift Women in Positions of Leadership
---------------	--

WOMEN PROFESSIONALS: By 2014, approximately 76 million women who will account for 46.8% of the labor force.
WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS: Future job growth will be created primarily by women-owned small businesses and by 2018 women entrepreneurs will be responsible for creating over 5 million new jobs nationwide.
WOMEN OF THE FUTURE: Over the next decade, women will control two thirds of consumer wealth in the United States and be the beneficiaries of the largest transference of wealth in our country's history.
As the leader of your organization faced with forecasting how your company will deal with changes in the business landscape, are you positioned to reap the benefits and prepared to handle the challenges? Jewel addresses what areas must women look to strengthen and expand to successfully lead in this new global marketplace.

Jewel Daniels BIO

Known as the Tenacious Entrepreneur, Jewel Daniels is a Brooklyn-born exciting and engaging speaker and entrepreneur who carried her New York drive to the boardrooms of the South. Her business acumen has placed her as the president of Daniels Communications Group, a progressive corporate training and strategic marketing firm based in Savannah, GA.

She has been featured in various publications to include Skirt magazine, Onyx Woman, The Savannah Morning News, The Savannah Herald, and London's The Post business newspaper. She is a noted author, penning the books; It Takes Tenacity, 15 Power moves to Survive the Wilderness and Weather the Economic Storm and The Enterprising Entrepreneur. Her writing addresses business challenges and provides motivational messages for entrepreneurs and career professionals.

People are immediately drawn to Jewel engaging personality, connectivity with an audience and love of sharing her creative means for dealing with life's challenges. It gives her sheer joy to make people laugh, embrace success but push to achieve greatness!

Whether you are reading within the pages of her books or sharing space with her during one of her speaking engagements, you will always walk away inspired, compelled to reach for greatness and feeling that you have made a new friend.

As an accomplished business woman, she has received recognition as one of Georgia's "40 Under 40" in Business and Politics by Georgia Trend magazine and the Savannah Business Report & Journal, Entrepreneur of the Year as well as receiving recognition from former Georgia Gov. Roy Barnes and Congressman Jack Kingston. She has also been dubbed one of the "brightest thinkers on issues of urgent concern to the African American community" by the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation Conference planners and was the first African American woman accepted to Yonsei University in Seoul, Korea where she studied International Relations and Political Science.

Jewel currently serves on the board of Quantum, Inc. and serves in leadership positions with the American Society for Training and Development (Savannah) and the Savannah, GA and Jacksonville, FL Chapters of the Society Human Resource Management and the Society for Government Meeting Planners. She holds memberships in the Jacksonville and Savannah Chambers of Commerce, the Savannah Small Business Chamber and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

She is a graduate of Hampton University as well as New York University's Public Relations Institute. She is an Adjunct Instructor at Savannah Technical College, a Stephen Minister and trained Bible Study.